

BAY AREA NIGHT GAME

This sign is part of a treasure hunt being held on Sunday, February 19. Please don't remove it!
We'll come take it down after the event.

Executive Tangrams:

The only relevant information in the text is the boldfaced names of the presidents. You do not need to go back to where you picked up this puzzle.

35 of the shapes can be made with the 7 tangram pieces, but the other 8 shapes require an extra small triangle. Look at the first letters of the names of those eight presidents.
